GRAND JURY ENDS WORK

Exclusion Act Matter Decision and Other Business.

By last night the Federal grand jury had practically completed its investigations of cases presented to it. Its final report will be rendered before Judge Dole today. Members of the body from the other islands will therefore be able to leave for their homes in today's steamers.
District Attorney R. W. Breckons has won the admiration of the grand jurors by the able manner in which he has conducted the business. He had the United States cases so well prepared that there was no time wasted. If a witness was lacking for the moment when one case was called, Mr. Breckons at once substituted another case. There was consequently a steady presentation of matters for investigation.
COURT BUSINESS.
On the roll call of trial jurors yesterday E. E. Hartman and T. W. Hobron failed to answer and attachments were issued to bring them into court. After a number of excuses had been granted, the available panel was reduced to seven men. A special venire was issued for eighteen men returnable today.
The sentence of John Samoa, who pleaded guilty to illicit liquor selling, was continued till today.
Captain William Treanor, master of the American schooner M. Turner, was arrested on Kauai by Marshal Hendry on a bench warrant pursuant to indictment for smuggling and selling liquor at Kahului on a former trip. He gave a bond yesterday in the sum of $1000.

The Turner is at Eleale from New-castle, N. S. W., with coal.
Adachi, charged with perjury, whom Marshal Hendry brought back from Japan under extradition proceedings, is to be tried this term.

EXCLUSION ACT CASE.

Judge Dole yesterday rendered a decision in the Pang Kun habeas corpus matter, in which the father of the subject contended that the boy was unlawfully prevented from landing. His conclusion reads:
"It is well settled by repeated decisions that the Federal Courts have no authority to review the decisions of Immigration officers made under authority of the statute affecting the right of aliens to enter the country."
"The Immigration officer was given constitutional authority by statute to determine the question of the right of Pang Kun to enter the country, subject to his right to appeal to the Department of Commerce and Labor. He has decided the question against such right. The said Pang Kun has had his appeal to the Department of Commerce and Labor, and the decision of the Immigration officer has been confirmed, and such decision is made final by the statute. Unless it should appear that Pang Kun was deprived of a hearing under the statutes referred to, or that the Immigration officers had in some way failed to conform thereto, so that the question had arisen in the case whether he had received the benefit of due process of law in the trial of his claim that he had a right to enter the country, this court would have no jurisdiction to interfere."
"I find no basis for interference in the facts alleged to the petition and the demurrer is therefore allowed and the petition dismissed. The Marshal is ordered to deliver the said Pang Kun to the respondent for such further proceedings as are required by law."
F. E. Thompson and C. F. Clemens for petitioner; J. J. Dunne, Assistant District Attorney, for the immigration officers.

CHINESE MUSIC IS PAID FOR WEEKLY

Mr. Fong Quane, treasurer of the Tee Gee Tong Society, of which complaint was made by a resident as to the continual clashing of Chinese musical instruments, says that the men who are termed as "loafers," are all working men.
"These men come to the club after working hours," said he, "and are instructed in Chinese music by a bandmaster whom the club employs at so much per week. These men learn to play in Chinese bands so that they may be prepared to furnish music on Chinese New Year's, at receptions and any public or holiday occasions."

TWO UNIQUE RAILROADS.

The rails of the Mexican Gulf Railroad are laid on mahogany sleepers and the bridges built of white marble. In West Mexico is a line with ebony sleepers and ballast of silver ore drawn from the mines beside the track. The engineers constructing these railways had no other material on the route, and found it cheaper to use these seeming extravagances than to import the ordinary material.

The letters of Miss Merkley, whose picture is printed above, and Miss Claussen, prove beyond question that thousands of cases of inflammation of the ovaries and womb are annually cured by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Gradual loss of strength and nerve forces told me something was radically wrong with me. I had severe shooting pains throughout the pelvic organs, cramps and extreme irritation compelled me to seek medical advice. The doctor said that I had ovarian trouble and ulceration, and advised an operation. I strongly objected to this and decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I soon found that my judgment was correct, and that all the good things said about this medicine were true, and day by day I felt less pain and increased appetite. The ulceration soon healed, and the other complications disappeared and in eleven weeks I was once more strong and vigorous and perfectly well.
"My heartiest thanks are sent to you for the great good you have done me."—Sincerely yours, Miss MARGARET MERKLEY, 275 Third St., Milwaukee, Wis.

Miss Claussen Saved from a Surgical Operation.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—It seems to me that all the endorsements that I have read of the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound do not express one-half of the virtue the great medicine really possesses. I know that it saved my life and I want to give the credit where it belongs. I suffered with ovarian trouble for five years, had three operations and spent hundreds of dollars on doctors and medicines but this did not cure me after all.
"However, what doctors and medicines failed to do, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did. Twenty bottles restored me to perfect health and I feel sure that had I known of its value before, and let the doctors alone, I would have been spared all the pain and expense that fruitless operations cost me. If the women who are suffering, and the doctors do not help them, will try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, they will not be disappointed with the results."—Miss CLARA M. CLAUSSEN, 1307 Penn St., Kansas City, Mo.
